

NCLA 2020 Summer Clerkship

About NCLA's Summer Clerkship Program:

We aim to equip our law clerks with the skills and professional development opportunities to be effective and fulfilled liberty advocates. In the heart of D.C., our 10-week summer program runs from May through August, with flexibility for start and end dates as necessary.

Because NCLA is committed to constitutional principles, we seek applicants who are demonstrably committed to the principles of due process, regulatory fairness, and civil liberty. Our clerks enrich their approach to the law with creative, pragmatic, and collaborative thinking to best serve our clients and our principled mission.

Our clerkship program offers exciting prospects to fortify your career including:

- Hands-on Litigation Support: Learn the ropes and sharpen your skills by researching complex and nuanced legal issues, drafting well-reasoned and articulate legal documents, and participating in case development with our experienced advocates;
- Building Your Network: Meet influencers in the constitutional and administrative legal fields including renowned attorneys, judges, and legal scholars;
- Advancing Our Movement: Join other members of our movement for candid discussions about the hot button Administrative issues NCLA tackles during our Lunch & Law Speaker Series;
- Igniting Your Career Path: Work with our team to improve your professional profile and better position yourself for the future with highly valued, real-world work experience. As part of our team, you'll have the opportunity to broaden your prospects with professional writing samples, esteemed references, and resume review opportunities.

About NCLA: The New Civil Liberties Alliance (NCLA) is a nonprofit civil rights organization founded by prominent legal scholar Philip Hamburger to protect constitutional freedoms from violations by the Administrative State. NCLA's public-interest litigation and other pro bono advocacy strive to tame the unlawful power of state and federal agencies and to foster a new civil liberties movement that will help restore Americans' fundamental rights.

How To Apply: Please submit your resume, cover letter explaining why you would be a good fit to advance NCLA's mission to defend liberty against the Administrative State, and either first semester grades (for 1L applicants) or first year grades (for 2L applicants) to Paul Burghart at paul.burghart@ncla.legal

Want To Know More? Click HERE to check out what our former clerks had to say!

Join our New Civil Liberties Movement. Protect Americans from the Administrative State!